Profile

Alyssa is a business attorney who works with corporate clients on an array of business-related matters including Corporate Transparency Act (CTA) compliance.

Alyssa assists clients with general corporate matters, including general business counseling, corporate governance, corporate, entity and nonprofit organization formations, stock book cleanups, and entity dissolutions.

Her practice also heavily involves CTA compliance. Alyssa handles the filing of CTA Beneficial Ownership Information Reports. She has experience analyzing complex corporate structures to determine ownership and substantial control. She also advises businesses on how to maintain compliance going forward.

Additionally, Alyssa has experience drafting and reviewing various documents, such as promissory notes, redemption agreements, membership interest purchase agreements, assignments, operating agreements and more.
