Profile

Bert focuses his practice on the representation of financial institutions and concentrates on commercial real estate closings. He conducts loan-to-purchase financings and represents lenders in construction loans for large real estate projects, including those for office buildings and hotels.

In addition, for his financial institution clients he often handles their bankruptcy work and mortgage foreclosures. Sapurstein is a frequent speaker at bankers' associations seminars on issues of concern to financial institutions in the areas of commercial loan documentation, creditors' rights, collecting judgments, bankruptcy and other relevant issues.

Prior to joining Bond, Bert was the founding senior partner of Sapurstein & Bloch, P.A., serving the needs of financial institutions and creditors in South Florida for more than 40 years. Bert is a frequent lecturer at Florida Bar sponsored and approved seminars regarding issues of concern to lenders in documentation and collection issues.
