Profile

Claire is a skilled litigation attorney with over a decade of experience representing clients in trial and appellate courts and administrative proceedings. With a broad substantive background and experience in an array of industry sectors, she is a trusted advisor who assists clients to manage risk and achieve their ultimate goals.

Consistently recognized as a “Rising Star” and “One to Watch” by Best Lawyers and Super Lawyers, Claire represents health care institutions, corporations, employers, school districts, and other businesses through all phases of the litigation process from pre-trial investigation through trial and post-trial appeals before state and federal courts.

Claire has extensive experience representing hospitals and health systems, medical and dental professionals, nursing homes, and other ancillary medical care providers in professional liability and malpractice actions. In addition to Claire’s healthcare litigation experience, she represents and advises clients in employment matters. Claire regularly conducts employee investigations and has litigated employment disputes involving discrimination, retaliation, wrongful termination and breaches of fiduciary duty. Claire also has experience representing clients in commercial disputes and intellectual property litigation.

Claire’s approach to client service is designed to help her clients achieve their short-term tactical goals while keeping their long-term strategic objectives front and center. She understands the legal terrain, pitfalls, and nuances of high-stakes litigation and she effectively helps her clients navigate contentious situations.
