Profile

Daniel counsels clients on a range of matters, including review of lender's loan documents, drafting of required borrower's documents and review, preparation and termination of UCC filings. He also counsels clients regarding entity selection, formation, corporate governance and employment matters including payroll compliance, independent contractor criteria and non-compete agreements.

Daniel is experienced in drafting asset purchase agreements, stock purchase agreements, stock redemption agreements and membership interest purchase agreements. In addition, he prepares organizational documents including operating agreements, partnership agreements, corporate bylaws, shareholder's agreements and all related amendments. Daniel handles commercial real estate letters of intent, purchase and sale agreements, tenant estoppel certificates, SNDAs, commercial lease agreements, access easement agreements and IDA documents.

Prior to joining the firm, Daniel participated in the Syracuse University College of Law Low Income Taxpayer Clinic.
