Profile

Debbie is a paralegal in the firm's property department where she assists our attorneys representing buyers, sellers and lenders in residential and commercial real estate transactions.

Prior to joining the firm, Debbie worked in the real estate industry for more than 20 years as a mortgage loan processor, real estate agent and as a real estate paralegal in the energy department at a prominent law firm in Wheeling, WV. As a result of these roles, she has gained knowledge and experience working in the real estate field with both residential and real estate mineral work.
