Profile

Haley is an experienced real estate attorney helping clients work through the sales process from initial stages through closings, representing purchasers and sellers of residential and commercial real estate. Haley also works with financial institutions and lenders in real estate transactions for her clients.

Haley reviews and negotiates contracts, examines and clears titles, prepares agreements and closing documents, negotiates terms and credits and represents her clients at closings. In addition to her real estate experience, Haley drafts agreements and leases for business and real estate transactions.
