Profile

Jane concentrates her practice in the areas of estate planning, estate and gift taxation, wealth preservation, probate, and trust and estate administration.

Jane works with clients to prepare and execute various estate planning documents, including wills, revocable and irrevocable trusts, health care proxies, and powers of attorney. She works closely with client's accountants, financial planners and other advisors to best achieve the client's personalized goals.

Prior to joining Bond, Jane attended Syracuse University College of Law, where she graduated magna cum laude and served as an associate editor for the Syracuse Law Review. During law school, Jane completed a judicial internship with Federal Judge Mae A. D'Agostino in the Northern District of New York, interned with Hiscock Legal Aid Society, and worked as a legal research assistant for Professor Lauryn Gouldin and Professor Margaret Harding.
