Profile

Jeff represents and advises clients in employment matters. He has litigated employment disputes involving wrongful termination, discrimination, whistleblower and retaliation claims, unemployment insurance benefits, and breaches of fiduciary duties.

Jeff has appeared before the New York State Division of Human Rights, the EEOC, and the California Personnel Board. He lectures on topics including workplace investigations and drug policies, and advises companies on personnel policies.

Jeff also has extensive experience in providing commercial litigation services to clients in a wide range of industries, including:

- industrial manufacturing,
- waste management,
- materials design,
- website development and internet marketing,
- equipment distribution and service,
- entertainment, and
- cosmetic and pharmaceutical development.

On behalf of these clients, in both state and federal court, Jeff has litigated claims involving business torts, contract breaches, intellectual property infringement, trade secret misappropriation, shareholder disputes, property disputes, zoning violations, and defamation.
