Profile

Recognized as one of the 500 Leading U.S. Corporate Employment Lawyers by Lawdragon, John counsels and represents employers on labor and employment issues helping them achieve and maintain legal compliance, while improving employee engagement and workplace productivity.

With over 25 years of experience advising employers in a broad range of industries, John provides his clients practical, real-world advice, mindful of the need to balance the legal "ideal" with a client's operational reality. He focuses on:

- Preventative counseling concerning compliance with federal and state employment laws, including wage and hour, EEO, leaves and other reasonable accommodation concerns, and corrective actions and terminations
- Administrative proceedings before the EEOC, Division of Human Rights, NLRB, and federal and state departments of labor
- Contracts/agreements including employment agreements, retention agreements, executive contracts, confidentiality, nonsolicitation and noncompetition agreements, and severance plans and agreements.
- Training for executives, board members, supervisors and employees on a wide variety of topics including sexual and other prohibited harassment, wage and hour compliance, performance management, progressive discipline and terminations, recruiting, hiring and retention, the reasonable accommodation obligation, drug and alcohol concerns and other ADA and FMLA issues, social media, technology and privacy
- Personnel policies and procedures and employee handbooks
- Workplace investigations relating to harassment and other EEO concerns, ethics violations and other workplace misconduct
- Business transitions, such as mergers, acquisitions and reductions in force
