Profile

Kevin has three decades of legal experience focused primarily on sophisticated commercial real estate matters for Fortune 500 companies. He serves as national counsel for several clients, negotiating leases, purchase and sale contracts and easements, as well as facilitating the management of significant multi-state real property portfolios. Clients find him to be deeply knowledgeable, responsive and accessible.

Kevin has represented both lenders and borrowers in a variety of commercial lending transactions, including construction loans, securitized loans and non-recourse loans.

Kevin's experience also includes the representation of private and institutional clients in condemnation and zoning proceedings, as well as real estate litigation matters.
