Profile

Kim Wolf Price is the Chief Operating Officer for Bond, Schoeneck and King (“Bond”). Kim serves as an advisor to the Management Committee on issues pertaining to strategic growth, retention, business development and attorney development. She works with firm leadership to create programs and opportunities that support Bond’s attorneys so that they may better serve our clients. She also focuses on strategies to increase the retention and advancement of Bond attorneys. Kim serves as the firm’s Diversity Officer.

Kim chairs several firm committees including the Diversity Committee, Professional Development Committee and Well-Being Committee, and works closely with the Associate Committee, Pro Bono Committee and the Recruiting Committee (attorneys) to advance their goals. She is a member of the Artificial Intelligence Committee. In her role, Kim works with outside organizations, clients and other partners on educational programs and community initiatives. Kim is also the host of the firm’s podcast, Legally Bond.

Kim’s legal practice began in the New York City office of Clifford Chance US LLP. She then worked for a small firm in Syracuse before working for Syracuse University College of Law, first serving as Assistant Dean of Professional & Career Development for several years before taking on the academic role of Director of Externship Programs where she devoted herself to the professional development of law students and alumni.

Kim is a member of the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA). She is the chair of NYSBA’s Committee on Attorney Well-Being and is a longtime member of the Bar’s Committee on Diversity Equity & Inclusion, where she supports the Youth Law Day events. She is a former chair and longtime member of NYSBA’s Women in Law Section and Lawyers in Transition Committee. She is a fellow of The New York Bar Foundation (TNYBF) and was elected to the Board of Directors for the TNYBF. Kim was appointed to The Robert A. Katzmann Justice For All: Courts and the Community, the civics education project of the Federal Courts of the Second Circuit. She is a Board Member of the Central New York Volunteer Lawyers Project and the Central New York Women’s Bar Association.
