Profile

Kim works with firm leadership to create programs and opportunities that support its attorneys so that they may better serve clients. She also focuses on inclusion efforts and implements strategies to increase the retention and advancement of Bond attorneys.

Kim works closely with several firm committees including the Diversity Committee, the Associates Committee and the Recruiting Committee (attorney) to advance their goals. In addition, she works directly with the firm's Women's Initiative. She is a member of the Pro Bono Committee and is charged with overseeing the firm's pro bono efforts. Kim chairs the firm's Professional Development Committee and Well-Being Committee. In her role, Kim also works with outside organizations, clients and other partners on educational programs and community initiatives.

Kim's legal practice began in the New York City office of Clifford Chance US LLP. She then worked for a small firm in Syracuse before working for Syracuse University College of Law, first serving as Assistant Dean of Professional & Career Development for several years before taking on the academic role of Director of Externship Programs where she devoted herself to the professional development of law students and alumni.

Kim is a member of the New York State Bar and is Chair of the New York State Bar Association's the Women in Law Section. She is a longtime member of the Bar's Committee on Diversity Equity & Inclusion, where she supports the Youth Law Day events. She is a former chair of NYSBA's Lawyers in Transition Committee. Kim was appointed to The Robert A. Katzmman Justice For All: Courts and the Community, the civics education project of the Federal Courts of the Second Circuit. She is a Board Member of the Central New York Volunteer Lawyers Project and the Central New York Women's Bar Association.
