Profile

Kristin provides value to her clients by representing them in all aspects of commercial real estate matters. Her primary responsibilities include drafting and reviewing purchase and sale agreements, leases and construction contracts. She also counsels clients on other real property issues including easements, rights of way and myriad other encumbrance and title issues.

Prior to joining Bond, Kristin completed a two-year clerkship with the New York Supreme Court, Appellate Division, Fourth Department in Rochester, New York. While at the Fourth Department, Kristin was part of a group of attorneys presented with the President's Pro Bono Service Award in the "Government Office" category by the New York State Bar Association in recognition of the attorneys' commitment to provide free legal representation to unrepresented tenants in eviction proceedings.
