Profile

Kseniya has over ten years of experience in the immigration field. Her immigration law practice centers on employment-based immigrant and nonimmigrant petitions.

Kseniya represents employers and employees in a variety of industries including, but not limited to engineering, manufacturing, financial services, information technology and academia. She has extensive experience in the preparation of H-1B and TN temporary worker petitions and L-1 intra-company transfer petitions.

Kseniya also has experience in preparing applications for permanent employment certification for advanced degree professionals and skilled workers and immigrant visa petitions for multinational executives and managers. She represents clients before U.S. consulates in nonimmigrant and immigrant visa applications. Finally, Kseniya regularly counsels clients on U.S. employment and non-discrimination laws, I-9 compliance and worksite enforcement audits.
