Profile

Laura is a Medicaid paralegal in the firm's trust and estate department. She works closely with Bond attorneys and clients to navigate the Medicaid system and application process to help pay for long-term care costs.

With more than 20 years of private and public health care experience as a social worker, Medicaid expeditor, and Medicaid liaison, Laura brings to Bond a keen understanding of Medicaid regulations and how to navigate the application process. She works closely with our legal professionals to prepare and support clients with their Medicaid applications.
