Profile

Mary is a trusted business advisor with transactional and litigation experience, enabling her to fully understand the challenges and issues that many businesses face. Mary develops practical solutions to these challenges, while also mitigating risk.

Mary advises clients on various business matters, including business structure, formation and dissolution, transfers, corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, and business succession planning. She is experienced in reviewing, negotiating, and drafting various commercial agreements, and advising clients with respect to regulatory and compliance issues and commercial disputes.

In addition to her transactional experience, Mary also has a background in litigation, having represented clients in a broad range of matters, including commercial and regulatory disputes, and government investigations. Mary's experience and background in litigation informs her practice and counsel as a business attorney, helping clients in all aspects of their businesses.

Mary previously practiced with a large international law firm in Washington, DC. Prior to embarking on her legal career, Mary worked for a large non-profit foundation, also in Washington, DC.
