Profile

Mitch understands that his clients' business objectives are paramount, and uses those objectives as the guideposts which drive his litigation strategy.

While simplifying disputes into core themes that are easily understandable and persuasive to juries, judges and arbitrators alike, Mitch's in-depth legal knowledge and decades of practical experience allow him to cost-effectively formulate winning strategies and creative paths to resolution.

His extensive experience in complex commercial and tort litigation includes:

- breach of contract
- antitrust
- non compete
- insurance
- construction
- class action
- environmental
- civil rights
- energy
- intellectual property

Representing both plaintiffs and defendants, including municipal entities, Mitch's clients include companies in the advanced manufacturing, health insurance and energy industries.
