Profile

Nicole is a trust and estate attorney who concentrates her practice in estate and gift tax planning and estate and trust administration.

She serves as counsel and advisor to private clients, including business owners, corporate executives and families with developmentally disabled individuals. Nicole helps her clients realize their estate planning and philanthropic goals by advising them in the creation and administration of trusts, estates and charitable foundations. In addition, she represents both corporate and individual clients as fiduciaries in estate and trust administrations.

Nicole regularly speaks at continuing education programs for the New York State Bar Association and various community groups.

Prior to joining Bond, Nicole practiced in the Private Clients group of Nixon Peabody.
