Profile

Chris works on an array of legal issues and is passionate about serving his clients. He conducts legal research on a variety of topics including civil procedure, local court rules and supporting senior attorneys in complex litigation matters.

Prior to joining Bond, Chris interned at the Onondaga County District Attorney's Office, where he worked under the guidance of Assistant District Attorney Melanie Carden in the White-Collar Crime Bureau. He also has experience analyzing patentability of inventions from the Syracuse Innovation Law Center. There, he conducted FDA, federal, state and local regulatory research for various technologies. Chris was also an intern at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Northern District of New York where he worked with the Chief of Narcotics and the Chief of Counter-Terror. He also conducted legal research assigned by supervising AUSAs.
