Profile

Stefanie brings her knowledge and experience in real estate to help her clients navigate all phases of commercial real estate transactions. Her experience includes drafting, reviewing and negotiating leases, letters of intent, commission agreements, exclusive listing agreements, non-disclosure agreements and other real estate agreements, as well as drafting and negotiating broker agreements for independent contractors.

Prior to joining Bond, Stefanie was in-house counsel and a licensed real estate broker for a realty company where she handled many aspects of the purchase and sales of real property. Stefanie also was an associate focusing on real estate transactions for residential, commercial, cooperative and condominium projects. In addition, she is experienced in reviewing title reports and conducting real estate closings for her clients.

As a licensed real estate associate broker on Long Island, Stefanie understands the time-sensitive nature of these transactions and works with her clients to achieve their goals.
