Profile

Suzanne represents clients in commercial, higher education, employment and civil rights disputes and litigation. She has counseled and litigated in these subject areas for more than 15 years and regularly appears in federal and state courts. Suzanne has tried both jury and non-jury trials, argued before appellate-level courts and assisted clients in resolving disputes through mediations and arbitration proceedings.

Suzanne's litigation experience includes:

- Gender discrimination under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and the New York Education Law ("Enough is Enough")
- Student affairs, student discipline and faculty tenure disputes
- Employment discrimination under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA), the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the New York State Human Rights Law (NYSHRL) and the New York City Human Rights Law (NYCHRL)
- Wage and hour collective and class actions under the FLSA and the NYLL
- Racial discrimination under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act
- Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) claims (including ERISA class actions)
- Violations of Sections 1981 and 1983 of the Civil Rights Act
- Breach of contract, unjust enrichment and accounts stated claims
- Trade secret and unfair competition matters
- Disputes involving restrictive covenants and confidentiality provisions of contracts
- Disputes among members of limited liability companies and professional service limited liability companies (NY LLC Law and common law)
- Insurance coverage disputes

Suzanne's experience in complex litigation matters involves the extensive use of a variety of e-discovery platforms and technology. She is proficient in the management, collection and production of electronically stored information (ESI), uses technology to facilitate discovery in litigation and regularly assists clients with the preparation and implementation of record preservation policies.
