Profile

Tonya serves as office manager for Bond's Kansas City office that houses the firm's collegiate sports practice. In her role as office manager, Tonya is responsible for maintaining the daily functions of the office including client administration, file management, bill processing and organizational duties to ensure a smooth and efficient operation.

Prior to her arrival at Bond, Tonya spent seven years working with the NCAA enforcement staff and the NCAA's Office of the Committee on Infractions. Her responsibilities while at the NCAA prepared her well for her 20+ years of service with Bond's collegiate sports practice.
