Profile

As a trusted advisor to his clients, Bill has consulted with, and provided legal services to, a wide variety of companies for more than 40 years.

Bill regularly gives advice regarding contracts, licensing and distribution agreements, shareholder agreements, operating agreements, joint ventures, financings, including private offerings, mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, emerging companies, including limited liability companies and partnerships and major corporate transactions. He has successfully participated in complicated negotiations and has used his skills to advocate fiercely for clients in a wide range of industries, including for a world renowned fashion designer, automotive trade associations, financial institutions, life science companies and livery car services.

Prior to joining Bond, Bill headed the corporate/commercial law practice at Putney, Twombly, Hall & Hirson LLP.
