

Commercial Lending

Overview

Bond is well prepared to address the varied and specific needs of institutions and entities involved with commercial lending matters.

We offer distinct advantages based on our depth of experience and resources, accumulated knowledge in commercial lending matters, and a strong commitment to our clients' success through personal attention and a cost-effective process.

We represent a variety of lenders in a multitude of financing transactions ranging from:

- acquisition loans
- commercial real estate
- commercial lines of credit
- construction loans
- equipment leasing
- multi-lender loan participations and syndications
- permanent financing
- revolving lines of credit
- sophisticated multi-institution syndicated financings
- term facilities
- term loans

We also have unique experience in representing lenders in connection with large loan facilities to sovereign Indian nations as well as the development of Brownfield sites which will enable our lending clients to take advantage of these opportunities.
