

Municipalities

Overview

Bond has a long history of representing municipalities in New York State with an array of services to meet their varied and sophisticated needs.

Our present client roster includes more than 155 entities - 16 cities, 20 counties, 56 towns, 47 villages and 20 authorities. Our municipalities practice draws upon the experience of attorneys from across the firm's practice areas to match their areas of concentration with the many and sometimes complex legal issues facing municipalities throughout New York State.
