Speaker

Edward P. Hourihan, Jr. is a graduate of Siena College (B.A., 1987) and Western New England University School of Law (J.D., 1990).

Mr. Hourihan is the Managing Attorney of Bond, Schoeneck & King's Rochester Office. He handles a broad array of business and commercial disputes at the trial and appellate levels of both state and federal courts throughout New York State. Mr. Hourihan regularly represents Fortune 500 and other large corporations, insurance carriers, municipalities and public and private institutions. A substantial portion of his practice is dedicated to litigating complex commercial disputes, construction disputes, contractual breaches, insurance claims, and land use/planning and zoning actions.

Mr. Hourihan has significant trial experience in state and federal court having tried numerous cases before judges and juries throughout New York State and in other jurisdictions. He has lectured and published on a variety of topics, including trial practice, business law, construction law and subrogation law. He is listed in The Best Lawyers in America® 2012 and New York Super Lawyers 2011® and is Martindale-Hubbell®, AV Preeminent Rated.

Mr. Hourihan is a member of the New York State and Monroe County Bar Associations and the New York Academy of Trial Lawyers. He has served on the Board of Directors of the Community Child Care Center and Literacy Volunteers of Rochester (Past President). He is President of the Board of Directors of the Norman Howard School and a member of the YMCA Corporate Board. In 2004, Mr. Hourihan was recognized as one of the Rochester Business Journal's "Forty Under 40." He is admitted to practice in state and appellate courts throughout New York and Connecticut and before the U.S. District Courts for the Northern, Southern and Western Districts of New York and the District of Connecticut, and before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.
