Ami Egerstrom

Legal Engineer

Harvey

Ami is a former litigator with experience at Paul Hastings and Vinson & Elkins, where she worked on white-collar matters, internal investigations, complex commercial disputes, and litigation-related M&A due diligence.

She is now a Legal Engineer on Harvey's Go to Market team, partnering with law firms and in-house legal teams to reimagine how legal work is done with AI. Ami works closely with lawyers to design and implement practical AI strategies, building custom workflows, prompts, and adoption plans that drive real efficiency and insight in legal practice.
