

HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM

We understand the enormous pressures those in the hospitality and tourism industry sectors are under, whether from investors, employees, regulators, guests or your competition. At Bond we actively assist our clients in managing these pressures with our legal experience, knowledge of the hospitality industry and familiarity with our clients' operations.

As part of our full service offering, we guide our hospitality clients through numerous regulatory, transactional and litigation matters, including:

- business formation
- financing
- leasing
- labor and employment matters
- intellectual property matters
- real estate, construction and land use issues
- corporate law
- mergers and acquisitions
- liquor licensing and regulations
- government relations
- litigation
- zoning

As a trusted counsel to our clients, we look forward to assisting you.
